Where: Lovells LLP, 590 Madison Avenue, NY, NY 10022 (at 57th Street)

VLA is proud to host this panel of distinguished art and entertainment attorneys to speak about their personal career trajectories and what got them there. This panel is intended for young lawyers, law students, and individuals interested in careers in art, intellectual property, and entertainment law – fields that span the full range from copyright, trademark, licensing, and television programming, to visual art, literature, music, theater, dance, and nonprofit corporations.

This career panel will be the inaugural event for VLA's Young Associates Membership (YAM). YAM is our new membership category exclusively for young lawyers (in their 1st – 4th years of practice). Next year, VLA will host a variety of events for YAMs designed to encourage members' understanding of the representation of artists and arts organizations as well as to foster an appreciation for contemporary art and promote members' involvement in philanthropic activities. Programs currently being planned include concert events, private studio tours, curator-led exhibition and gallery tours, and art fairs. For more information on the YAM program, please click here.
