Tax and Financial Planning for Artists

Wednesday, December 2nd, 2009, 6:00pm – 8:00pm
VLA Auditorium, 1 East 53rd Street (at 5th Avenue), NY, NY 10022

The purpose of this workshop will be to provide freelance artists with basic financial and tax information which will allow them to take advantage of their self-employed status and to meet the challenges inherent in freelancing. Too many freelancers feel they are on a perpetual treadmill from which they can't escape. One reason is that they have their eye on their unpaid bills rather than on their cash flow and their ongoing financial picture. This class will focus on ways freelance artists can better track their income and keep track of their deductible expenses. Advice and other tax tips will be customized by freelance profession whether you are a visual artist, editor, designer or musician.

This class will be taught by Susan Lee, EA, CFP® a tax and financial consultant who specializes in taxation for artists in New York City. She has a weekly personal finance show on WBAI-FM. Her website is. www.freelancetaxation.com.
