ABOUT VOLUNTEER LAWYERS FOR THE ARTS

Since 1969, Volunteer Lawyers for the Arts has been the leading provider of pro bono legal services, educational programs and publications, mediation services, and advocacy to the arts community in the New York area and across the United States. As the first arts-related legal aid organization, VLA is the model for similar organizations around the world.

VLA serves artists and arts organizations in every discipline, including: acting, animation, architecture, book making, choreography, composition, three-dimensional design, costume design, craft and folk arts, dance, directing, fashion, film, graphic design, installation art, literary arts, modeling, multi-media, music, photography, playwriting, poetry, printmaking, screenwriting, sculpture, songwriting, theater, video arts, video game design, visual arts, and web design.

Access to VLA's pro bono legal services is available to low-income artists and nonprofit arts organizations. VLA's other services and programs are open to the entire arts community. For more information about VLA's services, please call the Art Law Line at 212·319·ARTS (2787), ext. 1.
